

Internet Safety Resources

Intel® Teach Elements: Moving into Mobile Learning

Explore the following resources for strategies to help students learn how to be safe and secure online

American Association of School Librarians www.ala.org/ala/mgrps/divs/aasl/aboutaasl/aaslcommunity/quicklinks/el/elinternet*

How school library media specialists can assist with Internet safety and filtering unwanted content

Children Online: Devoted to the safety of children and teens online www.childrenonline.org/resources.html*

Resources for parents and schools include Web sites, publications, and newsletters

Florida Center for Instructional Technology

<http://fcit.usf.edu/INTERNET/CHAP2/CHAP2.HTM>

Chapter 2: Becoming Good Netizens, from The Internet: Ideas, Activities, and Resources

GetNetWise

http://kids.getnetwise.org*

A list of resources to help parents and teachers educate children about Internet safety

Madison Metropolitan School District

http://oldweb.madison.k12.wi.us/webpub/studentwork.htm*

A sample procedure to publish student work online

NetSmartzKids

www.netsmartzkids.org*

A program of the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children

Pasadena Independent School District

www.pasadenaisd.org/web_policies_and_regs.htm

An example of one district's Web publishing procedures and guidelines

SafeKids.com

www.safekids.com/child-safety-on-the-information-highway*

Internet safety advice and tools related to child safety online, including an Online Safety Quiz and FAQs

SafeKids.com: Family Contract

www.safekids.com/contract.htm*

One example of a family contract for online safety

SafeTeens.com

www.safeteens.com/teen-safety-on-info-highway*

Internet safety information geared specifically towards teen behaviors

Wired SAFETY: The world's first Internet safety and help group

www.wiredsafety.org*

Internet safety, help, and education resources